WEDNESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 12.

THE QUEEN'S NAME HOOTED AND HISSED. -The inaugural meeting of the London Liberal-Radical Union was held at St. James' Hall yesterday evening. The hall was crowded with an enthusiastic audience. The organist attempted to play "God Save the Queen," when a storm of hissing and hooting arose, completely drowning the cheering. There were on the platform a number of the members of Parliament and other liberals, all of whom, with the exceptional in the complete of the members of the platform and other liberals, all of whom, with the exception of the complete of other liberals, all of whom, with the exception of Mr. Bradlaugh, rose and joined in the cheering. Mr. Bradlaugh's action was endorsed with terrific applause by a majority of the audience. Mr. Mosley made a vigorous speech, in the course of which he praised Lord Hartington for having refused. praised Lord Hartington for having refused to assist Lord Salisbury in saving the "political antiquities of the Carlton Club." The defection of Mr. Gochen, he said, had not caused any great refrigeration of the liberal atmosphere, while the mutiny of its cleverest young mombar, and its most reproduct est young member and its most respected old member would scarcely strengthen the government, which, indeed, was like an old pump whose handle came off. During the meeting every mention of Mr. Gladstone's name was the signal for enthusiastic cheer-

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the EIGHTY SEVEN YEARS of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshop it has become IS PREPARED TO DO AT THE SHORTEST invaluable.

The GAZETTE has better facilities for obtaining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dispatches from every part of the world ; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe. Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and fifteen hours earlier than the morning pa-

Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with merchants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other

Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs in and near the city, and this feature will, as ever, receive careful attention.

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily inereasing, especially among people who con sult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edi tion-nearly as large as the daily--is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, ap-
